

Eupora Arts Celebrates Black History Month

The BLY fine arts CENTER will be alive on the evening of February 22nd as Eupora Arts Celebrates Black History Month highlighting the contributions of the African American artists and talent, both locally and throughout Mississippi. The evening will be a “Celebration of a folks coming together” and filled with great art, history, entertainment and local talent.

Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Henry Flowers will lead the program as it winds its way down a path of musical history and styles as performed by local musicians relating to the impact African American culture has had in the world of music throughout the United States.

Entertainment will include performances by Liberty United Methodist Church “Hands of Praise” group, Mississippi Valley State University Band Director and Jazz Specialist, Mr. Michael Terregano (Piano), Pop Woodard, Lajuan Robinson, Rodney Rice, and Lennie Patterson. There will also be audio visual presentations throughout the evening highlighting people and events that made a significant impact on the history of music and in the coming together of America as an integrated country.

Artwork by Eupora High School’s talented Raphael Peoples and Rodney Rice will also be on display.

There will be a reception with refreshments following the program.

Please make plans to join us for a wonderful evening of entertainment as we celebrate Black History Month and the coming together of Arts and Culture.

When: Friday, February 22, 2008 at 6:00p.m.

Where: BLY fine arts CENTER, Downtown Eupora

** Admission is Free ****