

Jackson
FREE PRESS AND

THE WILLIAM WINTER INSTITUTE OF RACIAL RECONCILIATION'S WELCOME TABLE PRESENT

RECONCILIATION: A PERSONAL JOURNEY

.....

A forum featuring

Pastor Shirley Beach and Bishop Stanley B. Searcy Sr., and Pastor Doris Norman

of the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Natchez, and featured in the June 27 JFP story,

"We Are Family: A Klan Girl Fans a Different Flame."

Moderated by Donna Ladd, JFP Editor-in-Chief.

Other special guests to be announced.

Thursday, September 27

Local art on display/for sale beginning at 5 p.m.

Forum from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Stay for light refreshment and discussion until 8 p.m.

Millsaps College, in the Ford Academic Complex Recital Hall.

Free

Details available at www.jacksonfreepress.com and www.olemiss.edu/winterinstitute/welcometable/

CALL FOR ARTISTS!!

To participate in the accompanying show to demonstrate visually the theme of racial reconciliation.

If you believe your art qualifies,

please call Ronni Mott at 601-362-6121,

or send an e-mail to ronni@jacksonfreepress.com.